

Join the TSNLA, and help ensure that third sector learning and skills providers have a strong national voice

Influence

- ✓ TSNLA is the leading membership association for third sector learning and skills providers in the UK
- ✓ TSNLA members come from across the UK and represent a wide variety of learning and skills provision for adults and young people
- ✓ TSNLA lobbies on behalf of its 750+ members to Government departments and funding/planning agencies to ensure that the vital contribution of third sector providers remains high on the agenda
- ✓ TSNLA Trustees represent members on a range of key sector steering and policy groups
- ✓ TSNLA is known and trusted by sector stakeholders

Member services

- ✓ Monthly bulletins about policy, funding, resources and opportunities
- ✓ Access to resources and publications
- ✓ The opportunity to become involved with national projects such as the CPD Professional Exchange
- ✓ Advice, expertise and experience from TSNLA Trustees who are all experts within third sector learning and skills
- ✓ A chance to influence TSNLA policy development by contributing to surveys and consultations
- ✓ The opportunity to network and share experiences with third sector learning and skills organisations across the country

Join today!

The TSNLA is a membership organisation .

Subscriber Membership is open to small third sector organisations, and is free

Individual Membership is also available and costs £5

Investor Membership is based on turnover related to providing learning and skills activities (not total turnover)

Under £100k £50
£100k to £1m£175
Over £1m£350

Join the TSNLA at www.tsnla.org.uk and start making a difference!